ABOUT L. D. WELLS

L. D. Wells is a author, educator and motivational speaker with over 25 years of experience in leadership and personal development in government, corporate, arts and entertainment sectors.

L.D. is a highly sought after keynote, host, moderator, facilitator and panelist known for crafting inspirational and transformative messages for both in-person and online platforms.

In 2018, L.D. and her business partner became co-benefactors of the Ruby Dee Legacy of Sisterhood Endowed Chair Scholarship – a merit based award given annually to an African-American female collegiate or graduate student majoring in one of the Humanities. Supporting this amazing woman and arts activist creates more opportunities for young women pursuing artistic endeavors.
